

Marginal strips, 3x. The contract's margins frame the whole cell; the strips come out of the plot area, 1.0 mm from it and 4.0 mm deep. A strip shares the main axis, carries no title and one tick at the round number just above its peak, set in the main axis's tick column.